Julie Flanery, CPDT-KA, has been working with dogs and their owners since 1993. She is certified through the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers, a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers and the Association of Companion Animal Behavior Counselors, and prides herself on staying educated on current advances in training and behavior. She has placed obedience, rally and agility titles on her dogs, has earned Championships in Rally-FrEe, Freestyle and Heelwork to Music, and continues to compete and perform at public demonstrations. In 2001 Julie was named "Trainer of the Year" by the World Canine Freestyle Organization and has been a freestyle judge since 2003. In 2012, Julie developed the sport of Rally-FrEe to help freestylers increase the quality and precision of their performances. Julie has been a workshop and seminar presenter both nationally and internationally. Her book, "The Joy of Heeling" (2022) is highly recommended for both beginners and advanced trainers.
